Prom Praise is a delightful blend of sacred and concert music, a unique and joyful fusion of performance with worship, combining the spirit of Songs of Praise with the world-famous Last Night of the Proms.

Presented by the All Souls Orchestra under the energetic and inimitable direction of Principal Conductor and Artistic Director, Noël Tredinnick, Prom Praise is a feast of orchestral, solo and choral items. There is an element of celebration, too, when Noël, the Orchestra, and the massed choir drawn from churches in the Norwich area, invite the audience to join in to sing some favourite hymns and worship songs.

Joining Noël and the Orchestra at St Andrew's Hall this year will be an array of guest soloists and the speaker will be Rev Hugh Palmer, now Rector of All Souls Church, formerly curate of Holy Trinity Norwich.

Prom Praise is supporting the All Souls Orchestra's Prom Praise for Schools project. In 2002 Langham Arts began a series of events involving hundreds of school children in music-making at both workshop level as well as taking part in concerts at the Royal Albert Hall. This project is ground-breaking in that it enables many children to have an opportunity to be involved in live music for the first time both at a concert venue and in creating their own work; and, in addition, the team are able to explain the Gospel of Jesus through music and words in an appropriate and accessible way.
